

CAST Survey
City/Town-Owned Performing Arts Venues
February 2023

	City/Town Owned Cultural/Performing Arts Venue	Who Manages?	If managed by other organization, does City/Town provide funding?
Avon	Avon Performance Pavilion	Town of Avon Culture, Arts and Events Division	N/A (although the town works with third party vendor to hire music talent)
Basalt	Town owns land and non profit entity built the performing arts center	Non-profit	Provides funding through a dedicated RETA that is associated with the sale of real estate in the Willits Town Center. The money has been mostly used for capital expenditures but they have used some of it for operations. Our agreement is something on the order of 10 – 20% can be used for operations. Not certain what percentage of their overall operating budget the town’s contribution covers but it’s less than 10%.
Beaver Creek Resort Co.	Vilar Performing Arts Center (VPAC)	Vail Valley Foundation	Agreement includes an annual contribution towards the operation as well as a percentage of our annual RETA collections. Our contributions do not constitute a specific percentage of the VPAC’s annual operating budget.

Breckenridge	Riverwalk Center (performing arts venue) and Arts Diristrict, which consists several historic buildings utilized for arts programming, as well as a small performing arts theater used by the Backstage Theater company. Total of 12 facilities.	Breckenridge Creative Arts (501c3)	For 2023 the Town has budgeted $2,100,000 to the Breckenridge Creative Arts. This includes funding to support BCA specific programming and facility operations, which supports several partner arts/music organizations.
Crested Butte	Mallardi Theatre	Non-profit	No.
Crested Butte	Center for the Arts	Non-profit	No.
Dillon	Dillon Amphitheater	Town Events & Recreation Department	N/A
Estes Park	Performance Park	Town Events Department	N/A
Grand Lake	Rocky Mountain Folk School	Town currently but transitioning management to Creative District	Subsidizes the Creative District $100,000/year for general operations
Mountain Village	Telluride Conference Center	TSG Ski and Golf (Telluride Ski Resort)	Contribute $100,000 annually for a sales and marketing position and fund major R&M expenses as needed.
Salida	1. Salida SteamPlant Event Center and Theater 2. Riverside Park band shell	City of Salida Arts and Culture eapartment	N/A
Silverthorne	Silverthorne Performing Arts Center (SPAC) and town leases it at a reduced rate to Theatre SilCo	SPAC programming and operations are managed by Theatre SilCo (a non-profit). SPAC building maintenance is managed by Town.	Theatre SilCo receives annual program funding from the Town, approximately $250,000/year.
Vail	Gerald Ford Amphitheater	Predominantly managed/operated by Bravo Vail	Annual contributions to programs. Contribute $300,000/yr to Bravo
Vail	Dobson Ice Arena	Vail Recreation District	N/A
Whistler, BC	Maury Young Arts Centre	Whistler Arts Council manages, supported by financial resources from municipality.	Municipality funds 60% of the operating budget.
Winter Park	Rendezvous Event Center within Hideaway Park	Annual contract with Winter Park Chamber of Commerce to program the facility. Town provides minimal staff to assist with facilities (trash removal, clean up).	The funding for the 2023 contract is $391,500