

Public Bodies Compensation

Member Survey: CAST, November 2021

Jurisdiction	Amounts & Notes
Vail	Boards and Commissions receive free parking pass valued at about $1,000/yr. Council paid about $1,000/mo. plus health benefits, parking pass and ski pass.
Ketchum, ID	Pay P&Z commissioners $200/meeting (1-2 meetings per month); Library is non-profit and privately funded - no govt involvement
Estes Park	Does not currently compensate any of our boards and commissions beyond the Town Board. The Town Board receives an annual stipend paid out bi-weekly and has access to Town benefit at employee rates.
Telluride	Pays $150/month to our Planning and Zoning Commission members, and to our Historic and Architectural Review Commission members. We require members to complete training before getting paid, but after that, it's automatic for as long as they're members in good standing.
Winter Park	Provides our Planning Commission members $50 / meeting. We do not have any other boards or commissions that receive compensation from the Town.
Steamboat Springs	Offers all of their volunteer and elected boards and commissions a season pass for themselves and their immediate family to Howelson Hill Ski men as well as privileges at the Haymaker Golf Course. Both city owned assets.
Crested Butte	Board of Zoning and Architectural Review (BOZAR). Board members are paid $30 per hour for Design Review Committee (DRC) meetings. There are two DRC meetings per month and two members of the seven member Board sit on DRC each month with a member of staff. Members are paid $100 for each full Board meeting. There is a minimum of one full Board meeting per month by code. The Board Chair is paid $1050 per quarter. Sections 16-22-170-180 of our municipal code outline this, here: https://library.municode.com/co/crested_butte/codes/municipal_code?nodeId=CH16ZO_ART22BOZOARRE_S16-22-170COCH
