

CAST Survey: Resources for J-1s
March 2024

- Does your community provide any information such as a welcome packet or list of local resources to J-1 workers?
 - Park City
 - The Park City Chamber of Commerce, in coordination with the City and local stakeholders, developed a webpage for seasonal workers \(including J-1 workers\) outlining housing resources, Spanish-speaking resources, transportation, healthcare, etc. Seasonal Workers (visitparkcity.com).
 - Breckenridge
 - Nothing at this time. The Breckenridge Ski Resort provides J-1 workers with information and has avenues for housing issues.
 - Silverthorne
 - Nothing specific at this time.
 - Estes Park
 - Nothing specific at this time.

- Does your community have an avenue for J-1s to report substandard housing issues, knowing many may be afraid to report or ask about housing/safety issues?
 - Park City
 - The Tenant Resources section of the website provides links to information regarding tenant rights and mediation services.
 - Breckenridge
 - If contacted about a housing situation, the Town will do everything they can to help out that person between their Housing Department and the Summit County Combined Housing Authority.
 - Silverthorne
 - Nothing specific at this time
 - Estes Park
 - Nothing specific at this time.